

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

LECTURER in COMMUNITY STUDIES

Beinn Mhàbu, a campus of Colaisde na Gàidhlig | The Gaelic College invites applications for a full-time, limited term Lecturer position in Community Studies. This position will commence Jan 6 and end April 18, 2025, with the possibility of renewal.

Beinn Mhàbu delivers a unique, culturally focused, and community-based educational experience to all who become part of its community.

The successful candidate will teach one second-year, six-credit course (COMS 2100 Applied Research) over the Winter semester; evidence of teaching excellence is critical. Candidates should have a Master's degree in a related discipline.

Course Description: COMS-2100 is a core course within the BACS program at Cape Breton University.

Students engage in group projects which apply the problem-solving skills of COMS 1100 and develop additional abilities and techniques of primary research, analysis, and evaluation.

This course is provided as part of the Beinn Mhàbu Year 2 Program in collaboration with Cape Breton University. It is delivered onsite, at the Beinn Mhàbu campus in Mabou, Nova Scotia.

Applicants are expected to demonstrate potential and commitment with regard to teaching, and service to Colaisde na Gàidhlig, community, and profession.

For more information and to apply, please send CV and a cover letter to info@beinnmhabu.ca.

Applications must be received by May 10, 2024.

Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply but applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Gaelic cultural appreciation and language is considered an asset for all positions at Colaisde na Gàidhlig

Beinn Mhàbu

A campus of Colaisde na Gàidhlig

32 MacDonald Road, Mabou, NS B0E 1X0