

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

LECTURER in ANTHROPOLOGY

Beinn Mhàbu, a campus of Colaisde na Gàidhlig | The Gaelic College invites applications for a part-time, limited term Lecturer position in Anthropology. This position will commence Mar 3 and end April 18, 2025, with the possibility of renewal.

Beinn Mhàbu delivers a unique, culturally focused, and community-based educational experience to all who become part of its community.

The successful candidate will teach one first-year, three-credit course course (Language Decline and Revitalization) over six weeks in the Winter semester; evidence of teaching excellence is critical. Candidates should have a Master's degree in a related discipline.

Course Description:

This course will introduce students to signs of language decline and the approaches by which language revitalisation can occur. Case studies from around the world will illuminate methods of language revitalisation.

This course is provided as part of the Beinn Mhàbu Year 2 Program, in collaboration with Cape Breton University. It is delivered onsite, at the Beinn Mhàbu campus in Mabou, Nova Scotia.

Applicants are expected to demonstrate potential and commitment with regard to teaching, and service to Colaisde na Gàidhlig, community, and profession.

For more information and to apply, please send CV and a cover letter to info@beinnmhabu.ca.

Applications must be received by May 10, 2024.

Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply but applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Gaelic cultural appreciation and language is considered an asset for all positions at Colaisde na Gàidhlig
